MAUI NOTES.

Drowning of a Native off the Coast at Paia—Society News—Kahului Shipping.

March 24, Mahiai (k.) of Waikapu reports that he in company with his friend Kahahana (k.) went to Kaupukuloa, Hamakualoa, Makawao District, to procure a canoe from a relative named Kalani (k.), which was delivered to him. Kahahana started to return in it to Kahului, while Mahiai came back on horseback, leading the other's horse to Kahului, where he was to await the arrival of his companion Kahahana, who was seen trying to put in at Maliko Gulch, but the wind was blowing too sharp and he could not make a landing. He was advised by those on shore to go in at Kuau. This was about 5:30 p. m., and later, about dark, the man in the canoe was seen off Kuau, but he made no attempt to put in at that place and continued on towards Paia. At daylight next morning, as Kahahana had not arrived at Kahului, Mahiai became anxious and returned along the beach to look for his friend. At a small fishing place called Kaa, between Spreckelsville and Kahului, he found the canoe bottom up on the sand, the paddles gone and the man nowhere to be found.

The missing man was an expert with a canoe, having fished and traded between Lanai and Molokai, and was well known and highly esteemed. As he has not returned to Waikapu where he belongs, it is supposed he is drowned. He leaves quite a large family to mourn his loss. Immediately upon the information being lodged with the Sheriff, Mr. Chillingworth had his men out, and the beach was thoroughly patrolled, but up to present writing no trace of the body has been discovered.

Society people still continue on their way rejoicing, amusing and being amused, with receptions, afternoon and high teas, dinner and card parties, etc., etc., apparently utterly indifferent to the momentous questions of the day, such as annexation, sugar bounties, contract labor, opium license and the like, in which so many of your good people are in heated debate at present.

This afternoon there is to be a social gathering and dance at the elegant new home of one of the people of Wailuku, at which Paia, Makawao and Waihee loveliness will predominate. On Thursday next, Mrs. Ed. Friel will entertain her many lady friends at her pretty home at Waikapu with afternoon tea.

Prominent among the picnic and riding parties of the past week was one from Spreckelsville and Kahului to the beautiful Iao Valley. Col. Z. S. Spalding, of Paris, France, and Kauai, H. I., has been visiting his sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Herbert, of Wailuku, during the past week, combining business with pleasure. Business called him to Waihee, to examine into the present management of the plantation at that place, of which he is the president. The Colonel is looking well, but, judging from a brief conversation with him, is not very favorably impressed with the future prospects for Hawaii, and is evidently a strong advocate of annexation as a prompt remedy for many of the existing evils, including the present stagnation in business.

The harbor at Kahului looks bare and empty. There are no vessels in port, which is rather unusual for this season of the year. The schooner Mary Dodge, Gallop master, discharged her cargo of redwood from Eureka, for Wilder & Co., and sailed Monday, March 21, for Mahukona, North Kohala, Hawaii, where she will load sugar for San Francisco.

The schooner Anna, Williams master, is due at this port, having left San Francisco on the 11th.

We are pleased to report quite a decided improvement in the condition of our Circuit Judge, Hon. George Richardson. Mr. H. G. Treadway, who has been quite ill at his house for the past week or ten days, is again at his desk, although not fully recovered.

Mr. E. B. Carley of Kahului, superintendent of the Maui Telephone Co., in convalescing rapidly and, although not able to attend to outside active business, can be heard in answer to a telephone call for "central."

Strong E. and N. E. winds still prevail, with continued rain squalls. The temperature is decidedly cool—too much so for health or comfort—and there is a great deal of sickness in the district, so that the Sisters in charge of our hospital at Kahului have their hands full.

The present indications are that you may have some interesting reading for the March next week. The good people hereabouts are mustering in their Christian forbearance and resignation in view of the renewal of the controversy on Prohibition in the Bulletin between "S. S." and J. M. Horner. Oh, why is suffering humanity thus afflicted? Are there no vacant halls, away out in the woods, that they can hire? If not we beg they will have mercy on us. "Cut it short" and give us a rest as soon as possible.

AMEN.

Messrs. Cage & Sherman, of Alexander, Texas, write us regarding a remarkable cure of rheumatism there as follows: "The wife of Mr. Wm. Pruitt, the Postmaster here, had been bed-ridden with rheumatism for several years. She could get nothing to do her any good. We sold her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and she was completely cured by its use. We refer any one to her to verify this statement." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers.
